Outlook compared to previous quarter ● Weaker ● Unchanged ● Improved

Market outlook

Construction

- The US civil market remains strong and well-funded through existing federal funding programs and the US building market is mostly stable
- Civil market more active than building market in Europe and the Nordics. Gradually stronger with increased investments in defense, energy and water treatment facilities

Residential Development

- Good level of activity in the Central European housing market
- Lower than normal market activity in the Nordic housing market
- In the Nordics, fundamentals are improving but macroeconomic uncertainty impacts consumer confidence and the pace of recovery

Commercial Property Development

- Leasing activity in Central Europe and the Nordics are improving. Supply gap starting to materialize in Central Europe.
- Central European and Nordic transaction markets strengthen with better access to and pricing of funding
- US market recovery is lagging compared to Europe but there is a clear flight to quality trend

Investment Properties

- Polarized occupier market - stronger demand for high quality space than older stock.
- Competitive market but rents expected to remain mostly stable

Group Summary

- A solid third quarter
 - Construction – Strong margins generated by a solid project portfolio.
 - Residential Development – Strong sales and margins in Central Europe. Nordic markets remain weak.
 - Commercial Property Development – Two large lease contracts signed
 - Investment Properties – Stable performance
- Maintaining a solid financial position
